In the matter of clerkly neatness he is not to be compared with Reynaud nor Justice Sallé, and the character of his French shows many marks of degeneration. As regards the spelling of proper names, particularly of English names, he out-trumps all of the other clerks in irregularity and carelessness.

Such women, even though owning and directing large estates, were not tithable under the Virginia law, the Assembly expressly exempting all women from the payment of tithes, except slaves or servants over sixteen years of age, who were capable of doing work in the field.
